Garage Parking Permit Terms of Use

Terms of Use

By clicking accept you agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions.

General Terms & Conditions

Permits are only valid for parking structures owned by the City of San Luis Obispo and are not valid for on-street parking or parking in privately-owned lots. Permits remain the property of the City of San Luis Obispo. You may not assign or transfer your permit use under the parking permit agreement or allow any other party to utilize your parking permit, unless agreed to in writing by the City of San Luis Obispo.

When parking in a paid parking space, a valid license plate must be visibly displayed on the vehicle at all times. Only front-end parking is allowed in all paid parking spaces. Permit holders must abide by disability parking restrictions.

The parking of unlicensed or uninsured vehicles, the general storage of vehicles, and the repair or maintenance of vehicles, including car washing, is prohibited. Further, the parking of vehicles that in the opinion of the City of San Luis Obispo pose any kind of hazard or have hazardous contents is also prohibited. Vehicles must not be parked in such a way as to block traffic lanes or violate any laws or regulations.

Permit holders must abide by all parking garage rules, staff instructions, parking space designations, traffic signs, fire lanes, height restrictions, official notices, and other facility markings. Permit holders can park in public parking spaces at any of the City of San Luis Obispo parking garages.

All space is available on a first-come, first-serve basis. A parking space is not guaranteed. The City of San Luis Obispo does not assign a definite space to permit holder, but specifically reserves the right to designate, from time to time, the space to be used by the permit holder.

Any misuse of a permit or violations of these terms & conditions will be considered a breach of the parking permit. Misuse includes, but is not limited to, allowing any third party to use a permit.

If you are in breach of the terms and conditions, the City of San Luis Obispo may, without notice, suspend parking privileges; terminate the parking permit agreement; and/or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, tow or boot the vehicle at your expense. In the event of the permittee's breach of terms and conditions, termination of the permit is effective immediately.

The City of San Luis Obispo may terminate this agreement with thirty (30) days notice. Permit holder may terminate this agreement with thirty (30) days notice. Termination by permit holder shall only be effective following the notice period. Permit holder agrees that the City of San Luis Obispo will not provide refunds or a prorated fee for any partial months.

These terms and conditions are subject to change by the City of San Luis Obispo without notice. In the event the City of San Luis Obispo makes any changes to these terms and conditions, they will post the changes on the city website. Please check periodically to review the terms and conditions.

Liability Notice

The City of San Luis Obispo is not responsible for loss or damage to any vehicle, the vehicle contents, or personal injury as a result of fire, theft, or ordinary or gross negligence; nor are they responsible for personal property left in the vehicle, nor for any damage or injury sustained through faulty vehicle equipment.

The permit holder accepts responsibility for damages caused by any vehicle accessing the parking locations using their permit. The permit holder agrees to hold harmless the City of San Luis Obispo for any damage and/or personal injury claims arising from the permit holder and/or additional users' use of the parking locations.

Fees and Charges

All fees and charges are non-refundable and no fees will be pro-rated for partial periods. Fees and charges are subject to change without notice by the City of San Luis Obispo.

Permit holder is responsible for all applicable taxes. If permit holder loses their assigned Garage Permit Card, or if it is stolen, a replacement fee of $10 will be charged for a new one.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the City of San Luis Obispo reserves the right to tow or boot, at the owner's expense, any vehicle parked in violation of applicable local or state law.
